

Lulu expands its retail presence in UAE ; Opens New Hypermarket in Al Ain

Al Ain: Lulu has further strengthened its retail footprint in the UAE with the opening of a new hypermarket at Al Ain Community Centre, Al Khabisi, underscoring its continued investment in the country's fast-growing retail sector.

The new hypermarket was officially inaugurated by Hamdan Awadh Tareef Mohammed Al Ketbi, Managing Director of Al Falaj Investment, in the presence of Yusuffali M.A., Chairman of Lulu Group, and other dignitaries.

This is Lulu's 269th outlets in the GCC. " The new hypermarket reflects Lulu's focus on strengthening community-based retail while delivering quality, value and convenience to customers." Said Yusuffali M.A., Chairman of Lulu Group.

Spanning 19,000 square feet, the Al Ain hypermarket offers a comprehensive product range including fresh food, groceries, bakery, fashion, household products and electronics. The store features modern retail infrastructure, including self-checkout facilities, and ample parking facilities. Inaugural offers are also ensured for the customers.

Also present on the occasion were Ashraf Ali M.A., Executive Director of Lulu, Saifur Rupawala, CEO of Lulu, V Nandakumar, Director of Marketing and Communications; Shaji Jamaludheen, Regional Director of Al Ain and others.
