

Lulu Hypermarket Celebrates Eid Al Etihad with 2000 kg Cake in Al Ain

A team of 13 culinary experts prepared the grand three-layered vanilla fresh cream cake

Al Ain: Lulu Hypermarket celebrated Eid Al Etihad with a vibrant event at its Al Kuwaitat branch in Al Ain, highlighted by the cutting of a massive 2000 kg cake, a gesture symbolizing unity and the enduring spirit of the UAE.

The celebration was attended by Ahmed Omran Al Ameri, Advisor and Director of the Municipal Community Center , Al Aamerah, along with senior officers from Al Ain Police, Shaji Jamaludheen, Lulu Al Ain Director and visitors who joined together for the festivities. Families and residents turned out in large numbers, underscoring Lulu's role as a trusted retail destination that brings communities together and embraces national values.

The 2000 kg cake was prepared under the supervision of lulu Regional Chef Riyas Chooriott Omaban Hamza, supported by a dedicated team of 13 expert chefs. Crafted over three days, the three-layered vanilla fresh cream cake, topped with cherries and fresh fruits was a true culinary delight. Following the cake-cutting ceremony, the chefs and staff shared slices with customers, warmly greeting them on Eid Al Etihad.

Also present on the occasion were Shaji Jamaludheen, Regional Director of Lulu Al Ain; Unnikrishnan Pulikayathu, Regional Manager of Lulu Al Ain region and others.
