

Lulu Express Now Open at Y Tower, Reem Island

"The group is on an expansion track in the UAE and plans to open 19 new stores in Abu Dhabi," said Yusuffali M.A., Chairman of Lulu Group.

Abu Dhabi, UAE – Reem Island, the dynamic heart of Abu Dhabi's urban lifestyle, has welcomed its second Lulu store, officially opens its doors. The launch marks a significant step in Lulu Group's ongoing expansion in one of the capital's fastest-growing residential and commercial hubs.

The store was inaugurated on Monday by Engineer Khaled Nasser Al Menhali, Executive Director of the Urban Planning Sector at Abu Dhabi City Municipality, in the presence of Yusuffali M.A, Chairman of Lulu Group and other dignitaries.

"Lulu's expansion is progressing as scheduled. We're committed to increasing accessibility and convenience across the UAE, with 19 new projects in the pipeline for Abu Dhabi alone," said Yusuffali M.A. during the ceremony.

Strategically located near Reem Village and adjacent to Sorbonne University Abu Dhabi, this smart-format concept store offers around 900 square metres of optimized retail space, tailored to serve the fast-paced lifestyles of students, professionals, and families in the area.

From household essentials to global grocery favorites, Lulu Express delivers a curated shopping experience.

Shoppers can also enjoy a seamless, contactless experience with dedicated self-checkout counters, complemented by the convenience of 30 parking spaces, ensuring easy accessibility.

Also present on the occasion were Ashraf Ali M.A, Executive director of Lulu; Saifee Rupawala, CEO of Lulu ; Salim VI, Chief Operating and Strategy Officer of Lulu ; Prasad K.K, CFO of Lulu and others.
