

Lulu Group Chairman Yusuffali M.A. contributes AED 20 Million to Fathers' Endowment Campaign

Abu Dhabi: During the holy month of Ramadan, Yusuffali M.A., Chairman of Lulu Group, has announced contribution of AED 20 million to support the Fathers' Endowment campaign, launched by His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President, Prime Minister, and Ruler of Dubai. The campaign's goal is to establish an endowment fund to provide sustainable healthcare for underserved communities around the world.

The Fathers' Endowment campaign allows individuals to donate in honor of their fathers, promoting values of compassion, solidarity, and honoring parents. The campaign reflects the UAE's commitment to humanitarianism and generosity while encouraging the establishment of charitable endowments, ensuring longterm healthcare and empowerment for those in need.

Yusuffali M.A. expressed his support, saying, "Each Ramadan, His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum inspires us with humanitarian initiatives that reach those in need across the world. This campaign embodies the UAE's dedication to addressing the needs of underserved communities, particularly by providing essential healthcare, thus contributing to a dignified life for individuals. Through this initiative Lulu extended its hands of support and the contribution reflects our commitment to participating in philanthropic endeavours" said Yusuffali M.A, Chairman of Lulu Group.

This campaign is particularly important as it provides vital treatment and combats disease, ultimately enhancing the quality of life for those in need.
